I'm running to be the next Mayor of Camp Hill Borough because, in a time when too many forces are working to divide us, we need a leader who can bring us together—with purpose, compassion, and action. After four years on Borough Council, I've seen firsthand the power of connection, and I believe a strong, united community is the most powerful response to the fear and division we face. I'm ready to meet this moment and fight to keep Camp Hill a place where everyone can thrive.

I have nearly 15 years of experience as an office administrator in the public and non-profit sectors. I graduated from the University of San Diego with a B.A. in Spanish Language and minor in Political Science. In my spare time, I enjoy cooking Mexican food and spending time with my husband William and my dog Honey and cat Jasper.
